CATHOLIC CHARITIES DIOCESE OF ARLINGTON

Dear Friends in Christ,

In this year's annual report, we remember all that has been done to serve the poor, protect the vulnerable and welcome the newcomer through God's grace and the ministries of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington. We rejoice in the generosity of so many in our community who helped make this work possible. As our diocese embarks on its Golden Jubilee celebration, we renew our commitment to compassionately – and competently – serve all those entrusted to our care.

Catholic Charities served more than 27,000 men, women and children seeking help this past year. We depended on the hard work and effort of our dedicated employees, committed parishioner and community volunteers, and the extraordinary financial support of parishes and individuals from throughout our diocese.

We are grateful for the leadership of our shepherd, Bishop Michael F. Burbidge and our Board of Directors. We are equally grateful to all the pastors of our diocese for sharing in our ministry of love and service to those in need.

We remain deeply thankful for our partnerships with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Office for New Americans (Commonwealth of Virginia), and the many cities, counties and foundations who provide us with additional resources to carry out our mission and ministry.

Above all, we give thanks to God for the opportunity to provide help and bring hope to the people of the Diocese of Arlington.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Stephen J. Carattini

"We only went by two things: one was the spirituality, and the other was learning how to sustain life outside of Christ House ... I didn't know I had this much life in me. I never knew I could be doing the things I'm doing. I owe so much of my life to Christ House."
